

LOUISE PITRE BIOGRAPHY

Louise Pitre won the hearts of Canadian and Americans alike as the star of “Mamma Mia!” in Toronto, San Francisco, L.A., Chicago and finally as the original Donna Sheridan at the Winter Garden Theatre on Broadway where she held the role for the first two years of its run, earning her a Tony®-nomination. She has starred in countless musicals (“Piaf,” “Jacques Brel is Alive and Well and Living in Paris,” “Sweeney Todd,” “Song & Dance,” “Annie Get Your Gun,” “Blood Brothers” just to name a few), has a thriving concert career with her trio as well as with symphony orchestras across the continent. She has starred in many TV and film projects (“A Christmas Wedding” with Eric Mabius, “Celine” playing Celine Dion’s mother, “MVP — The Secret Lives of Hockey Wives” as Taff Baron, and is the host of the new series “Star Portraits” which began airing on Bravo! in 2009.
